COCKTAILS 20Z

I ALWAYS GET THE SHAFT - 12

Espresso Vodka, Butter Tart 40 Creek, Creme de Cacao, Coffee
Creamy, dreamy, coffee snifter. Shaken and frothy, like after an unexpected weekend encounter that you don't really regret, despite telling your pals otherwise.

SIPPIN' ON GIN AND JAAAAAM - 13

Tanquery, Chambord, Apricot & Peach Jam, Lemon Juice

It's like Martha and Snoop got together and started a show and oh wait they did and it's almost as good as this drink but not quite. Fiery Gin and sweet jam come together to make a liquid jam tart that when you drink it, it makes you feel laaaaid back.

SPICED PEAR SIDECAR - 13

Cinnamon, Cardamom infused Brandy, Pear Liqueur, Lemon

We brought this swanky pants coup de coeur back because it's high time we raised those pinkies and had a bit of pat yourself on the back, congratulatory winking, wot wot. We are fabulous and so are you, along with this winter warmer. We also brought it back because Chelsea likes to smash them after work.

APPLE CIDER MARGARITA - 14

Tequila, Grand Marnier, Apple Cider, Lime, Ginger Syrup, Cinnamon Sugar Rim

It's a clash of memories. Those happy times, waiting in the line up to see Santa to tell him how you want nothing more than a puppyGIJoeBarbieDreamHouseSisterToLeaveForeverNewShoesanapony and also, those fabulous Margarita fueled evenings on a beach somewhere (or just pretending) where you drank and danced the night away and no one ever turned on the ugly lights. Two worlds collide to make one amazing beverage.

LYCHEE TO ME, I PROMISE, I'LL BELIEVE YOU - 14

Raspberry Vodka, Ruby Red Taynton Bay, Grapefruit Juice, Lime, Lychee Syrup

"Are you strong enough to be my draaaaaam?"

This drink is a shaken martini, strong and silky enough to hold you on a winter night, never letting go and never saying "no, I don't like your dancing." Believe in this. Believe in your bartender.

PINA VERDE - 14 (1.5OZ)

Green Chartreuse, Lime Juice, Coconut Syrup, Pineapple Juice

We couldn't rename this because it's a straight rip from a tictoc legend bartender who's perfection shall not be compromised by us, oh no, not with these herbal high notes! Honestly, who thought Chartreuse would make a come back as a tropical punch?

WE ALWAYS KNEW. We were just late to the party (very unlike us).

NOTHING OLD FASHIONED ABOUT IT - 15

Suntory Whisky, Hibiscus Cinnamon Syrup, Lime, Miraculous Foamer & Orange Peel

A gentle, floral alternative to the traditional (if somewhat dusty) stuffed armchair ice clinker we all know and love. Spicy notes, coupled with light, fruity vibes take you away to far off places that don't involve putting your feet up by the fire with a dickens novel, fatty beagle under foot.

HUGO SPRITZ -THE MOUNTAINEER - 15

St Germain Elderflower Liqueur, Prosecco, Soda, Titch of Cranberry, Rosemary

It's like Hugo left Italy with a sprig of rosemary in his cap and thought (that'll do) and then carried on his journey to discover a dodgy cabin in the deep fields of Langley where they grow cranberries and he thought (that'll do better) and a star was born. In other words a Canadian winter twist on an elegant Italian classic.

BIENENSTICH DER SCHLUCK - 11

Butter tart 40 Creek, Amaretto, Honey Jack, Coffee & Whipped cream

Say this three times fast, we dare you.

Also on our dessert menu because this beverage is a liquid interpretation of a European classic dessert called the Beesting that tastes like toffee, vanilla, sunshine and almonds. It conjures visions of that dodgy eighties children's book cover for the story of Heidi and the joy it brought so many of us as children. Now Heidi works here and drinks these with us.

SNACKER CAESAR - 14

Clamato, Pickle Mix, Worcestershire, Tabasco, Horseradish, Cowboy Spice Rim, Choice of Gin, Tequila or Vodka

This is the kind of drink that is talked about the world over. Canadians miss it when they leave and travelers want to try it when they get here. The Griffin's contribution is nothing less than a perfect representation of when we say "let's go for Caesars and wings" when really we mean we just want Caesars and will make a show of ordering food as well. Except with ours, you get an actual snack of deep fried pickle, onion rings, and a filthy bit of pickled sausage. You can still order wings, though, because they are also awesome.
