COCKTAILS

BLITZED BUNNY

Strawberry Vodka, Rum Chatta, Odd Society Creme de Cassis & Milk

It's like the Nesquik bunny is repenting for all of Nestle's sins and actually made a drink that tastes good and didn't crap all over any small communities to do it. 12

COWBOY NYQUIL

Dubliner, house Fig Syrup, hot Lemon

Drinkin' one of these be like kickin' off yer boots and settlin' in for a long night, cozied up next to the fire, guardin' them cows. Except without the smell of cow poop in yer nose. 12

JALAPENO MARGARITA, A LOVE STORY

Tequila, Lime, Bols Blue, fresh Jalapeno syrup

Fiery, fresh jalapeno, partnered with our delightful lime margarita and a touch of Bols Blue to frost it up a notch - what's not to love about this?! It's like if Elsa from Frozen went to Mexico and finally shed that frosty exterior, along with all her clothes and went swimming buck naked in the ocean with the dolphins and experienced real joy. Until she got arrested. 10

JIMMY CRAPFELKORN AND I DON'T CARE

Cranberry, Apfelnkorn, Captain Morgan's Spiced, Vodka, Triple Sec, Lime

It's like a Long Island Iced Tea, except with none of the same ingredients and it doesn't taste like iced tea. In fact, the only similarity is that it's loaded with booze and magically tastes like something so innocent you could feed it to angel babies. But that would be the worst idea ever and you would be evil. Delicious drink, though. 10

PUMPKIN PIE MARTINI

Fireball, Rum Chatta, Pineapple Juice

We just had to sneak one in there, didn't we? (that's what she said) All of the pie flavour, none of the overused spice infusion. Don't worry, there is no healthy squash in sight, here. Just lots of delicious fall flavours in the form of alcohol, shaken over ice for your enjoyment. And then you can lie and say you went for a pumpkin pie spice latte because you'll smell like one. 12

COWBOY CHRISTMAS CAROL

Rye, Mulling syrup, Egg White, Lime

You'll be freakin' yodelling like a yahoo after you taste this merry twist on a Whisky Sour. Trust us, it's worth a go. Like some cowboys. 10

CANADIAN CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

Nanaimo Bar 40 Creek, Creme de Cacao, Peppermint Schnapps, Coffee

Canada's contribution to the culinary world - Nanaimo Bars. So why not make it alcoholic and call it breakfast?! You can have this any time of day, though, because Canadians like to chuck tonnes of coffee back all day, too, eh. 10

ELECTRIC PEACH

Vodka, Peach Schnapps, OJ, Cranberry

Because who the hell wants to drink something called a Fuzzy Navel? It sounds riskier than old Elsa's fling with those dolphins. Add some vodka and cranberry and not only do you have a better drink, but it doesn't sound like getting dared to lick a linty belly button. 10

FANCY ASS FIZZ

Triple Sec, Gin, Prosecco, Ginger Beer, Cranberry

You know that Christmas when Nana ended up passed out next to the dog and the empty wrapping before dinner? She was on these. Don't let the fizz fool you, this is one robust beverage and not for the faint of heart. Pinkies up, down the hatch, Nana - Merry Christmas, ye' filthy animal. 12

COWBOY CAESAR

Tequila, Clamato, Pickle Mix, Worcesteshire, Tabasco, Horseradish, Cowboy Spice Rim

Sensing a theme, here? We took our pickled caesar and made it country. Added some horseradish for a bit more of a donkey kick, a Texas spice rim and a filthy bit of pickled farmer's sausage. Get your mind out of the gutter and your mouth round one of these. 12
